

ARIZONA GOVERNOR WILL NOT MOBILIZE MILITIA AT BORDER

WASHINGTON, October 15.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—Governor Hunt of Arizona telegraphed last night to the War Department that he would not send the Arizona militia to the Mexican border, in view of the disapproval of the administration.

He said in his message that he desired to co-operate with the Federal authorities in every way in handling the delicate situation on the border.

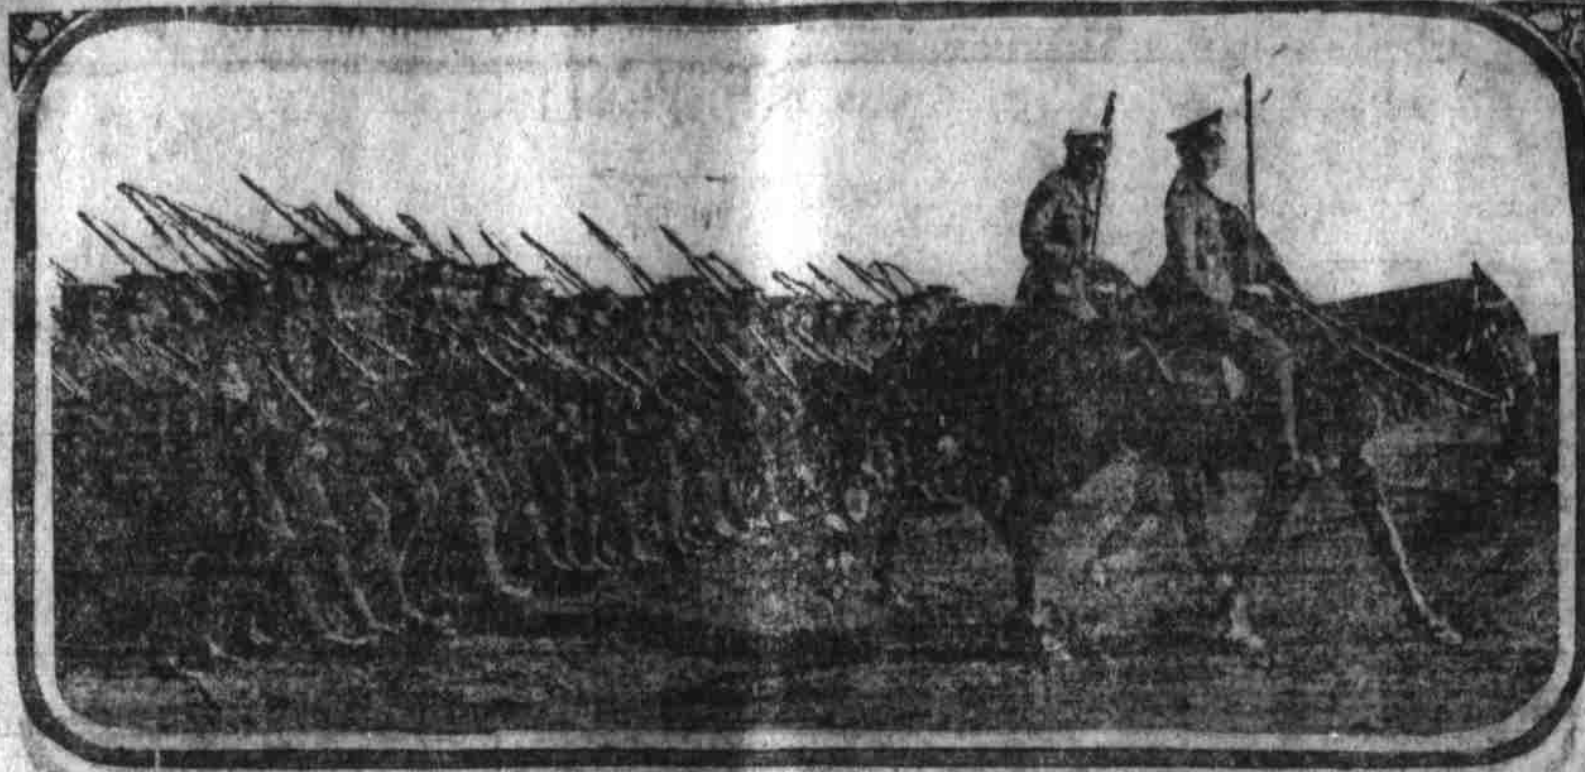

Monday night notification was received here that Governor Hunt would order the Arizona militia into the field and send it down to the border for duty, following the wounding of two citizens and three federal soldiers in the recent battle at Naco, Mexico, across the line from the Arizona town of that name.

When the matter was presented to President Wilson he held a conference with officials of the state and war departments, following which Secretary of War Garrison sent a message to Governor Hunt conveying the disapproval of the administration of his proposed course in ordering the militia to the border.

Governor Hunt was informed that if he persisted in calling out the state troops and sending them into the field, it would greatly complicate an already delicate situation and make matters more difficult for the Federal authorities in their dealings with Mexico.

It was intimated in the message to the Governor that if he persisted in his determination to order the Arizona militia to the border, the President probably would exercise his constitutional prerogative as commander-in-chief of the army, and call the Arizona militia into the service of the federal government.

CARRANZA SEIZES TRAM LINES

MEXICO CITY, October 14.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—General Carranza has seized the street car lines of the capital at the point of the bayonet, a big force of soldiers being called out to put the lines under military control. The employees of the company went on strike and endeavored to force all chauffeurs, teamsters and drivers to join them. They demand double pay, an eight-hour day and the recognition of their union.

The principal stockholders in the street railway company are English, French and Belgian. There are some American stockholders also. With its allied light and power company the street car company controls all the light, power, heat and transportation in a district of thirty miles radius around the capital. ## ISLAMIS ARE RESTLESS TO REGAIN TERRITORY LOST IN BALKAN WAR

LONDON, October 15.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—There are indications that Turkey and Portugal will become involved in the European war very soon.

It is known that Turkey has been desirous of taking advantage of the present situation in order to try and regain the territory lost in the Balkan war, and that German emissaries have been active in Constantinople.

Turkey's attitude is believed to have been wavering on the outcome of the fighting in France and Russia, and at the first indications of German success the Turks are expected to enter the conflict.

PORTUGAL ALSO IS RESTLESS

At Lisbon, the German minister to Portugal and his compatriots are preparing to leave for Madrid.

The Portuguese congress will convene tomorrow and the mobilization of the Portuguese army will be considered.

Under an old treaty, Portugal is required to send 100,000 troops upon the call of England.

Should the Portuguese enter the fight, their army is expected to co-operate with the Allies in France.

TEUTONS FALL BACK

PETROGRAD, October 15.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—A clash between the Russians and the Germans on the left bank of the Vistula on Tuesday was announced in an official notice yesterday.

The engagement took place along the road between Warsaw and Ivanograd, the Germans being pressed back, leaving a number of prisoners in Russian hands. One Russian regiment captured two German companies.

The Russians south of Przemyśl are locked in battle with the Austrian-German forces, and the bombardment of Przemyśl continues.

ZEPPELIN IS BROUGHT TO EARTH

A Zeppelin flying over a forest near Warsaw has been brought down by volleys from a Cossack patrol hidden in the forest. The great dirigible was so badly damaged by the shots that it could not escape and was forced to drop to the earth. The crew were uninjured.

General Engagement Reported

WASHINGTON, October 14.—Official despatches from Petrograd to the Russian attaché here notify him that a big battle has begun on a line extending from the neighborhood of Warsaw along the rivers of Vistula and San to the Austrian stronghold of Przemyśl, and from Przemyśl southward to the River Dnieper, in Austria. ## CANADIANS LAND IN ENGLAND

OTTAWA, Ontario, October 15.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—Cabled advices to Premier Borden, received yesterday, report the safe arrival at Plymouth of the fleet of thirty-two transports carrying the thirty-three thousand Canadian troops which make up the second expeditionary force despatched to the assistance of the British army in France. The men were disembarking last night at Plymouth, to join the British army in the Aldershot training camp.

The Canadian force is complete, with its own field guns to the number of sixty-six. Seventy-five hundred horses were taken.

In addition to their own guns, the Canadian government has sent for British use a large number of guns, including ninety-eight 18-pounders, six 60-pounders and thirty machine guns, these having been sent to Canada some time before the declaration of war for the equipping of the Canadian militia-artillery regiments. These guns will be turned over to the royal artillery to augment the artillery now at the front.

A large consignment of rifles was also taken over on the transports, to be turned over to the British war office as Canada's gift.

The transport fleet was conveyed by British cruisers.

ARCH-DUCAL MURDER IN COURT

ROME, October 15.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—It is reported that the Herzogian city of Serajevo virtually is in a state of siege, with troops throughout the streets to preserve order and to prevent any manifestations of the residents against the Austrian authorities during the trial of Gabriel Princip and the twenty-one others charged as his accomplices in the assassination of the archduke and his wife in that city on June 28. The charge upon which the twenty-nine are being tried is that of high treason, all of the prisoners being Austrian subjects.

THOUSANDS IN FLIGHT

LONDON, October 15.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—Advices from Ostend last night said that the German advance was within twenty-four hours' march of the city, and that the inhabitants were panic stricken.

Twenty-five thousand persons struggled on the docks to get on board refugee steamers for England. The hospitals were emptied, wounded soldiers being given first preference, then women and children.

ZEPPELIN ADDS TO TERROR OF PEOPLE

The presence of a German airship hovering near the city added to the terror of the people.

The latest advices indicate that there is no serious obstacle to the German advance to ports on the Belgian northwest coast. In a serious battle near Ghent on Monday, the Allies were repulsed by a superior force of Germans.

BRITISH FORCES ARE ADVANCING

An official statement of yesterday's activities of the British forces in France, given out by the press bureau, says that the British have been advancing against the Germans towards the left of the Allies' lines, pressing the enemy back slightly on the flank.

The fighting is taking place through a mining district, the country being rough and difficult to traverse. On this account the progress of the advance is slow.

The Belgian army is believed to have effected a junction with the French since the fall of Antwerp.

JONES PHILIPPINE BILL PASSES HOUSE

Promises Independence To Islands and Makes Governor and Legislature Elective

WASHINGTON, October 15.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—The Jones bill, declaring the purpose of the United States to recognize the independence of the Philippine Islands, "as soon as a stable government can be established," passed in the House yesterday by a vote of two hundred and eleven to fifty-nine.

Five Republicans and four Progressives voted with the solid Democrats. The bill will now go to the senate, but it is understood that it will not be taken up for consideration in that chamber this session.

The bill provides that both houses of the Philippine legislature shall be elective; senators to hold office for six years and representatives for three years.

The Governor is to be elected by a qualified vote, the vote of the President of the United States being absolute.

MANN LED OPPOSITION

WASHINGTON, October 2.—Declaring that Philippine independence meant surrender of American strategic command of the Pacific, which he called "the fighting ground of the future," and that a conflict between the United States and the Orient, "commercial or otherwise," was inevitable, Republican Leader Mann made a vigorous speech in the House Thursday opposing the administration Philippine bill.

Mr. Mann declared that if the Philippines became independent they would, in time, either be acquired by Japan or some other nation, ultimately to be used against the United States.

"If there is to be independence of the Philippines," said Mr. Mann, "let it be absolute independence. If they are to go, let them go and let Japan and China, Germany or England take them, as is inevitable, and then we will know what we have to fight."

"The awakening of China is more marvelous than in Japan, and as these great peoples in China rise to the civilization of our modern days, we will enter into a series of competitive efforts with the far east which have never been equaled."

"It is as certain as that the sun will arise tomorrow that a conflict will come between the far east and the far west across the Pacific ocean. A fight for commercial supremacy in the end leads to a fight with arms, because that is the final arbiter between nations."

"If we should let the Philippine Islands go today without a string tied to them they would belong to some other country outside of 10 years. But if they could keep their independence 25, 30, or even 100 years, in the end they would be used against us instead of in our favor, in the inevitable conflict between competing races."

When Mr. Mann took the floor Manuel Quezon, resident commissioner from the Philippines, had just concluded a plea for independence and for prompt action on the Jones bill, which would declare the purpose of the United States to grant independence as soon as the Philippines are capable of self-government.

WHAT BOURBONS ARE THINKING OF ONE ANOTHER

Minutes Kept by Secretary of Kakaako Meeting 'Sizes Up' Various Candidates

Treasury has crept into the ranks of the Democrats. The cabal of the party has learned of this treachery, and at their trusting place they have made the mystic signs and incantations and burned the necessary amount of incense for a terrible revenge to descend on the head of the traitor.

"This traitor—must have been a traitor—ravished the strong-box of the party, where all the secret and mystic records are kept, and took from this box the very private account of the Democrats' meeting in Kakaako October 12. It was a beautifully candid account, filled with personalities and naive observations on the shortcomings and strong points of the party, in the way of its record and future prospects."

SECRETARY GETS TIED

It must have been a terribly talkative meeting. The secretary complains of being tired near the end, and his report in itself seems to show this. But he doubtless was a good secretary, whoever he was. It was his report on this Kakaako meeting which was purloined from the strong-box.

He gives a vivid and true view of each speaker before paraphrasing what he says. Usually he credits the speaker with a "good stage appearance," but with making a "forced speech," or one where the arguments were not "cinehed."

This is what the secretary said of Supervisor W. H. McClellan: "Stage appearance good; delivery fair; dealt in general statement without stating any specific instances to prove points."

WORSE FOR MCCANDLESS

L. L. McCandles got it worse than this. The impression he made was reduced to these words: "Stage appearance confident; delivery excellent, but little enthusiasm created."

McCandles' speech, so the record states, was devoted mainly to the immigration law, which he knocked emphatically, and the frontage tax statute, which he declared to be a bad law.

Sheriff Rose was criticized because he made no argument, but the secretary conceded that his "stage appearance" was excellent. He added that Rose's delivery was fair, but that he was "very violent in his attacks." And the record shows that he did do some attacking—charging William Henry with too much willingness to pardon Chinese and Japanese.

By the time the sheriff got through his "attacking" the hour must have been late, for Kapaou Keoki and Robert Kalwi pleaded the lateness of the hour and did not make an oration themselves.

MOST POPULAR PROMISE

All the speakers or practically all—promised the laborer two dollars a day for road work, if elected. This is one of the most popular promises the Democrats have made. In the last campaign it got them many votes, and in making it again this year they are confident of the same result.

It sounds well—two dollars a day, a nice, even sum. To be sure, the promises are not carried out; but the Democrats won't be put to the test until after election. And then, if elected, they can make the same promise once more at the next campaign.
